

GOD SHALL BE PEACE

Sr. Grace Malonzo, DW
The Fourth Sunday of Advent

Today's Liturgy calls us to Peace-
Death to our false self-Total Consecration to God. The Prophet Micah emphasizes the Lord's regard for the smallness of things, yet its greatness reaches to the whole world. How? Because God shall BE PEACE!

In Psalm 80, we ask Our Lord to save us from our false selves. It will come from contemplating the tremendous gentleness and courtesy of Jesus, and we shall be changed.

Saint Paul forgot all the small stuff ("I count as nothing") and gave his all because he deeply committed his life to Jesus who gave His all for him. Do we still say and live, "I am all Thine."?

In the Gospel of Luke, can you imagine the very powerful presence and energy of Mary in the presence of her cousin? This deep connection to God can only produce extreme joy and peace.

Montfort and Marie Louise surely meditated on these very Scriptures and lived the Word in their daily lives. They are present to us today in our tumultuous time and assure us that all will be well!

Thanks be to God our Wisdom Family travels with them on our path each day! PEACE.
