Human Rights Day/Holy Innocents

In recognition of both Human Rights Day and the Feast of Holy Innocents, Pax Christi Metro New York will be joining Catholic Worker to present a Friday Night Talk at Mary House, 55 E. Third Street, Manhattan, on Friday, December 9th at 7:30 PM. Amy Wagner of the Ya Ya Network will be speaking, possibly along with some of the young people from the Network, which develops leadership skills in social and economic justice.

Peacemaking through the Arts

Save Sunday, January 29th, from 2:30 to 4:30 PM for an afternoon with renowned poet and musician, Cornelius Eady, co-founder of Cave Canem, a nonprofit organization that supports emerging African-American poets, and Rough Magic, a jazz and blues ensemble. Invited to join Mr. Eady are fellow poets and musicians who will perform their arts on themes of family life, violence, race and class. Location: Most Holy Redeemer Church, 173 E. Third Street, Manhattan. Proceeds from this performance benefit the work of Pax Christi Metro New York. Registration information will be available in the late Fall.

Ash Wednesday

Our tradition on Ash Wednesday is to offer a Lenten Reflection to the faithful outside St. Patrick's Cathedral. Help us spread the Word on March 1st at noon.

Retreat

We're very excited to have Sr. Megan Rice, one of the Transform Now Plowshares, to lead us on retreat from March 10th to the 12th at the Maryknoll Sisters Center. You won't want to miss this wonderful opportunity to be inspired by one of our greatest contemporary peacemakers.

Good Friday Way of the Cross

PCMNY is probably best known for its Good Friday Way of the Cross, which was its founding event. Commemorating Jesus' suffering in His own life and in the lives of people throughout the world today, hundreds process together, praying for change in ourselves and a society marred by such sins as poverty, racism, bullying and gun violence, human trafficking and war. Concluding with a 15th Station, we are reminded that we are a Resurrection people in a Good Friday world. Join us for our 35th consecutive Way of the Cross on April 14th starting at 8:30 AM at Dag Hammarskjold Plaza, E. 47th Street between First and Second Avenues.
