

SISTERS AND ASSOCIATES HONORED AT ANNUAL JUBILEE

Join us in recognizing and honoring this year's Jubilarians - Daughters and Associates of Wisdom who have achieved milestones in consecrated life and lay service. This year Sisters and Associates were honored for a collective 755 years of sharing Wisdom's blessings through their various ministries.

Pictured are jubilarians (L-R) Sr. Mona Guerrette (50 Years), Sr. Marie Immaculata Vane (70

Years), Sr. Ann Gray (60 Years), Sr. Margaret McCabe (60 Years), Sr. Margaret McPeak (70 Years), Sr. Joan Canfield (60 Years), Sr. Grace Malonzo (60 Years) and Sr. Margaret Kelliher (60 Years) renew their vows and promises before Sr. Catherine Sheehan, Provincial leader of the Daughters of Wisdom, at the Liturgy of Thanksgiving for this year's Jubilarians. Others recognized but unable to attend the ceremony include; Sr. Lucy Daigle (80 Years), Sr. Aurelie Michaud (75 Years), Sr. Eileen Catterson (60 Years), and Associate of Wisdom, Margaret Bromfield. Pictured above are William and Catherine Powers and to the right, Margaret Bromfield who have been Associates of Wisdom for 25 years. Read about their experiences on our Associates' page under the tab "Belonging/Associates."
