

Sr. Evelyn Lamoureux, DW Receives Town of Hempstead's 2016 Make A Difference Award.

Pictured above, left: (L) Supervisor, Anthony J. Santino and 4th District Councilman, Anthony P. D'Esposito present Sr. Evelyn Lamoureux, DW with the Town of Hempstead's 2016 Make A Difference Award. Pictured above, right: Sr. Evelyn is joined by Joanne Antun (L) who nominated her, Sr. Catherine Sheehan, DW and Councilman, Anthony P. D'Esposito.

Supervisor, Anthony J. Santino recognized twelve town residents as outstanding and dedicated humanitarians and presented them with the Town of Hempstead's annual Make a Difference award in a ceremony in the Nathan L.H. Bennet Pavilion on Tuesday, May 24, 2016. Among the twelve was Sr. Evelyn Lamoureux, DW, who was cited as a true and trusted volunteer, and recognized for her sacrifice and service for the betterment of others through volunteerism with local organizations. Sr. Evelyn is the Human Services Coordinator at St. Boniface Roman Catholic Church in Elmont, NY and serves on a number of community boards and organizations including the Martin de Porres School, Gateway Youth Outreach, Long Island Congregations Associations and Neighborhoods (LI-CAN), Long Island Federally Qualified Health Centers and the Zonta Club of Long Island. Sr. Evelyn is the Vicker of the Daughters of Wisdom, USA Province.