

Sr. Evelyn Lamoureux, D.W. Named Humanitarian of the Year in Elmont, NY Community

1/21/15

Recognized for her tireless devotion and commitment to the Elmont, NY community, Sr. Evelyn Lamoureux, D.W. was recently presented with the Thomas A. Bennet Humanitarian Award at its 4th Annual Dinner and Award Ceremony. The event was co-hosted by the Elmont Chamber of Commerce, the Elmont Union Free School District, Century 21 Prevete People Services, and Century 21 American Homes. The Thomas A. Bennet award was established to recognize volunteers in the community who are exemplary in their efforts to continue the mission of betterment of the Elmont community. Along with this honor, Sr. Evelyn also received a Certificate of Recognition from Town of Hempstead, Supervisor Kate Murray, and a Citation from Nassau County Executive, Edward P. Mangano.

Sr. Evelyn is congratulated by Daughters of Wisdom, USA Provincial Leader, Sr. Catherine Sheehan, D.W., and Nassau County Legislator, Carrié Solages.

Pictured with Sr. Evelyn Lamoureux, D.W. are (L) Carl H. Achille, Master of Ceremonies and Co-President, Elmont Chamber of Commerce, (R) Muzzio Tellini, Co-President, Elmont Chamber of Commerce, and Elmont Chamber of Commerce member, Paul Sapienza.

The event was attended by many local business owners, elected officials and colleagues on community boards and belonging to organizations with whom Sr. Evelyn serves, including Gateway Youth Outreach, Long Island Congregations Associations and Neighborhoods (LI-CAN), Long Island Federally Qualified Health Centers, the Zonta Club of Long Island, and the Martin de Porres School for Special Children. All in attendance gave a resounding applause to Sr. Evelyn for her leadership, dedication, humor, and the hope she brings to others through her strong faith and good works.